Northwest Children's Theater and School is holding a hair-a-thon on behalf of Locks of Love on Saturday, January 28th from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Stylists will be on site in NWCT's lobby to collect hair donations. As thanks for supporting this worthy cause, all hair donors will receive one complimentary youth ticket to a performance of Rapunzel ~ Uncut! In addition, a donation jar will be available in the lobby for the run of the show, with 100% of all donations go to Locks of Love.

Making the first cut will be 15-year-old NWCT performer Rebecca Fitzgerald, who makes her Mainstage debut as Rapunzel in the upcoming production. This will be the second donation for Fitzgerald: "I donated my hair in the fifth grade, after seeing a young cancer patient and deciding he needed my hair more than I did." Fitzgerald will be joined in the barber's chair by members of the NWCT community; students, staff and audience. "This organization is very near and dear to my heart," says Fitzgerald.

Donations must be 10 inches in length or longer and non-bleached (though colored or permed hair is acceptable). If you are unable to donate a ten-inch braid or ponytail, NWCT will keep a donation jar on behalf of Locks of Love for the duration of Rapunzel ~ Uncut!

For more information on what qualifies for a hair donation, visit the Locks of Love website at www.locksoflove.org. Find out more about Rapunzel ~ Uncut! and other NWCT programs at www.nwcts.org. Rapunzel~Uncut! is world premiere original musical and part of Portland's Fertile Ground Festival.
